

If Bread

F C
If a picture paint a thousand words
Cm Bb
Then why can't I paint you
Bbm F
The words will never show
Dm C7
Then you I've come to know

F C
If a face could launch a thousand ships
Cm Bb
Then where am I to go
Bbm F
There's no one home but you
Dm C7
You're all that's left me to

Chorus

Dm F C/Bb
And when my love for life is runnin' dry
Am D7 Cm C7
you come and pour yourself on me

F C
If a man could be two places at one time
Cm Bb
I would be with you
Bbm F
Tomorrow and today
Dm C7
Beside you all the way

F C
If the world should stop revolving
Cm Bb
Spinning slowly down to die
Bbm F
I'd spend the end with you
Dm C7
And when the word was through

Chorus

If Bread

Dm                    F                    C/Bb
Then one by one the star would all go out
Am    D7       Cm    C7    F
Then you and I would simply fly away
