 The sign went up one rainy morning just a couple of hours after dawn
 C G Am
 Mrs. Hadley peaked out through her curtains wondering what was going on E
 The neighbors said over coffee cups that nice young couple is breaking up

Am E Am
 In the living room the linen and the crystals sit all packed and set to go
 C G Am
 I tell myself once more I won't be here in spring to see my roses grow
 And all the things you tried to fix the roof still leaks the door still sticks

 And tomorrow some strangers will be climbing up the stairs
 E Am G F E
 To the bedroom filled with memories the one we used to share

Am E Am
 I know you've always loved that painting from that funny little shop in Spain
 C G Am
 Remember how we found it when we ducked in from that sudden summer rain
 But I think I'll keep the silver tray my mother gave us on our wedding day
